Among us.....

College is composed of many things; people who mold memories, places that shape memories and activities that round out memories. Each student has his individual ideals and distant goals, but it is together that we prove ourselves not only acceptable, but worthy. In 1909, the first year book of Howard College was named Entre Nous, meaning among us because it is among us that we capture the spirit, that certain prevailing quality, that is part of every Howard student.

Without us the beautiful campus would be fallow.
With us it becomes the testing ground for our social and educational endeavors.

Lonely tracks lead to Memory Leake Robinson Hall, the beautiful new law building.

Howard provides many opportunities for developing individual talents.

Students display varied abilities in drama.

Dave Beerman instructs grammar school children in special physical education program.

Dr. Ray Atchison listens attentively to class discussion.

Students scurry from one class to another.

A professor's view of an eager class . . .

Dr. Edward Robinson supervises the building of his cyclotron.

In our classes we often find the search for knowledge long and hard. Together we face the challenge and reap the rich reward.

Ingalls Hall and Reid Chapel.

Together we search for truth and the thoughts, and experiences shared help us in our spiritual growth.

Rev. James O. Colley at Baccalaureate.

Spiritual growth through various chapel services and activities is a major goal of Howard.

Religious Focus Week provides a time for worship and prayer.

Students join in praise.

The way we dress up for special occasions—like initiation . . .

The chance to enjoy a football game in the rain . . .

The very feminine lurch for a field goal . . .

Our lighter moments put the “spice” in college life and strengthen the ties of friendship among us.

The little pause between classes

The finger-lickin' after eating an entire pie in a contest

Howard's cheerleaders boosted the eager fans.

An umpire's view of a slugger in action.

A gridder bulldozes his way for yardage during one of the season's home games.

Our Progress requires more than just the education of the mind. The sports we enjoy . . . the rivalry and the competition offer us time for relaxation and opportunities for physical development.

Among us then, we share many things . . . days of working, playing, learning . . . and four years of life dedicated to education, but holding precious memories of time well spent . . . together.

LEWIS E. ARNOLD

To Mr. Lewis Arnold, Director of Photographic Services and Instructor in Journalism, the ENTRE NOUS staff dedicates this 48th volume of the yearbook.

Mr. Arnold, an Auburn graduate, has been an instrumental part of the ENTRE NOUS since 1960 when he came to Howard. As a Navy photographer, the manager of Auburn photographic services, a Birmingham News staff reporter, and the manager of SUN Papers Photographic Department, he gained valuable experience.

Not only is Mr. Arnold an excellent photographer but he also has a winning manner that gains the friendship and confidence of Howard students. All student publications, the Public Relations Department, and the Alumni Office are especially indebted to him. At football games, Homecoming, H-Day, Intramurals, Greek Week, pageants—any special or not so special event—appears Mr. Arnold equipped with camera and flashbulb. Such willingness endears him to the ENTRE NOUS staff as well as the remaining Howardites.

DEDICATION

ADMINISTRATION

The one segment of the Howard machine which deserves praise and receives student criticism the minute one thing goes wrong or tuition rises one cent is the administration. Actually they are responsible for our beautiful and well-operated school.

The same thing holds true for the faculty. These well-qualified professors uphold Howard's high academic tradition as they lead us toward a Christian education.

Both faculty and administration are fundamental in fulfilling the purpose of Howard College: "to promote Christianity through the development of Christian character, scholastic attainment, and a sense of personal responsibility."

Dr. Wright speaks to Students in Convocation.

Here our President is receiving an award over television.

LESLIE S. WRIGHT

President of the College

Dr. Wright came to Howard College as President in 1958. Dr. Wright is a very qualified person, and has led the College in an outstanding manner. Under his leadership, Howard has continued to promote Christianity through the development of fine Christian character, scholarship, and personality.

ADMINISTRATION

MAJOR HARWELL G. DAVIS
Chancellor of the College

Major Davis served as President of Howard from 1939 to 1958. While President, he worked with others in the moving of Howard to the new campus. Major Davis continues to serve the college in a fine way as Chancellor.

JOHN A. FINCHER
Dean of the College

Dr. Fincher has served Howard since 1946. In 1957, he moved from the Department of Biology to his present position as Dean of the College.

H. EVAN ZEIGER
Business Manager

Mr. Zeiger has served our school in a fine way as Business Manager. Much of the business of the College must pass through his office and approval.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Howard College Alumni Association is an organization composed of all former students of Howard College.

The business of the Alumni Association is carried on by the Alumni Office on the Howard campus. The association is under the direction of the Director of Alumni Affairs, Russell M. Donaldson.

A magazine published by the Alumni Office, The Howard College Alumnus, is mailed five times annually to each alumnus.

The alumni of Howard College give financial support to the school in increasing amounts each year.

A typical alumnus proudly displays his banner.

VERNON G. DAVISON
Chairman, Division of Bible and Religious Education

DIVISION OF BIBLE AND RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The division of Bible and Religious Education provides the student with an introduction to the study of the Bible and the Christian Religion. It seeks to prepare the student for better leadership, and instructs on an undergraduate level students preparing for the ministry, or other Church related vocations. The division offers a major or minor in Religion designed to provide the background for those wishing to continue theological studies.

Dr. Wintter, Dr. Susina, Dr. Byrum, Dr. Dunbar

The pharmacy curriculum provides the student cultural experiences in the fields of art, literature, music, political science, philosophy, and psychology. It seeks to provide young men and women with a professional education in the subjects which are needed for the practice of pharmacy, and a cultural education which will enable them to appreciate the values and problems of our civilization. The Division of Pharmacy holds membership in the American Council on Pharmaceutical Education.

Pharmacy alumni in the business.

DIVISION OF NATURAL SCIENCES

HERBERT A. McCULLOUGH
Chairman, Division of Natural Sciences

Dr. McCullough, Dr. Miller, Mr. Owens, Mrs. Merrill, Dr. Bush

The Biology Department aims to promote intellectual honesty in scientific endeavor; to promote through a complete and unified curriculum in the field a practical understanding of the principles of biology. They strive to equip the student for graduate or professional study. The Faculty includes:

Professor McCullough, Ph.D., University of Pittsburgh
Associate Professor Bush, Ph.D., University of Georgia
Assistant Professor Miller, Ph.D., Auburn
Instructor Owens, A.B., University of Alabama
Instructor Merrill, Part-Time.

Dr. Langston, Dr. Johnson, Mr. Chastain, Dr. Pilcher

The primary purpose of the Chemistry Department is to provide thorough grounding in the comprehensive fields of Chemistry. It has a constant objective to develop appreciation of the scientific method, and its application to problems wherever encountered. The Faculty includes:

Professor Pilcher, Ph.D., University of Missouri
Professor Langston, Ph.D., University of North Carolina
Associate Professor Robinson, Ph.D., Purdue
Assistant Professor Chastain, M.A., Columbia
Assistant Professor Hazlegrove, M.S., Emory
Assistant Professor Johnson, Ph.D., Duke.

DIVISION OF NATURAL SCIENCE FACULTY

The Department of Mathematics at Howard subscribes to the general purposes and objectives of the college and endeavors to cooperate with other departments in the development of Christian character and high scholastic standing. The Faculty includes:

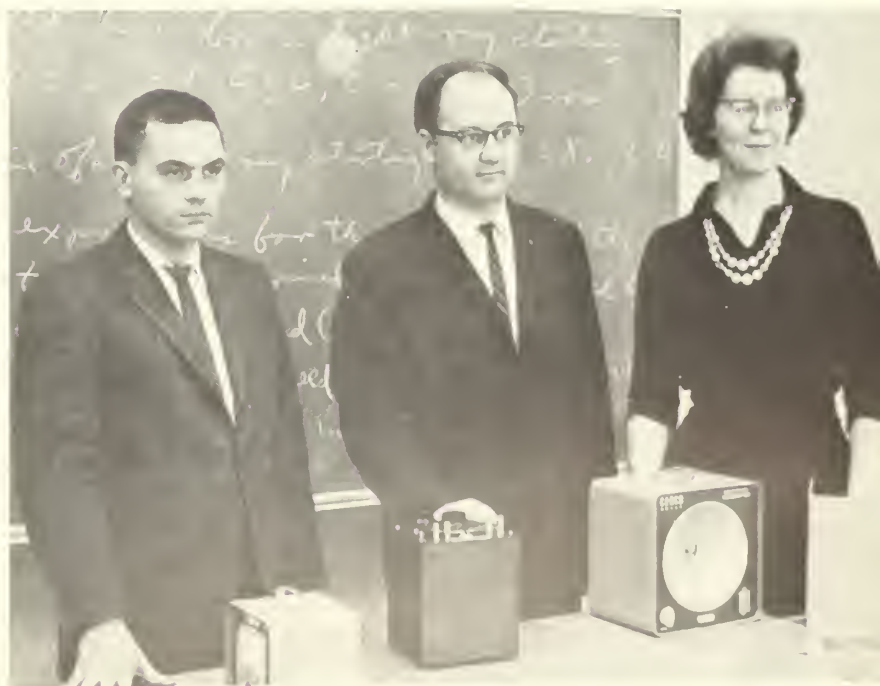

Professor Wheeler, Ph.D., University of Alabama
 Professor Peebles, Ph.D., University of Georgia
 Associate Professor Bishop, M.S., University of Arkansas
 Assistant Professor Morris, M.S., Virginia Polytechnic Institute
 Instructor Faulker, M.A., Louisiana State University
 Instructor Yeager, M.S., University of Louisville.

Dr. Peebles, Dr. Wheeler, Mr. Faulkner, Mrs. Yeager, Mr. Bishop, Mr. Morris.

The Physics Department assists the students in acquiring an understanding of physical phenomena and of the derivation of the laws governing this phenomena. The Faculty includes:

Associate Professor Robinson, Ph.D., Perdue.
 Assistant Professor Webb, Ph.D., University of Alabama
 Instructor Spears, M.S., Auburn
 Instructor Hughes, M.S., Alabama
 Instructor Ronat, B.S., Westminster, Pa.

Mr. Spears, Dr. Robinson, Mrs. Ronat

The Department of Engineering also follows the Christian policies as set up by the school. A student may choose courses such as Engineering Drawing, Surveying, Survey of Engineering, Electrical Engineering, and Electronics.

Most of the teaching is carried on by: Instructor White, B.S., Auburn.

DIVISION OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

GEORGE V. IRONS
Chairman, Division of Social Sciences

Mrs. Hamilton, Dr. Dickinson, Dr. Elmer

The Faculty includes:

Professor Irons, Ph.D., Duke University
Professor Allen, Ph.D., University of Pennsylvania
Professor Dale, Ph.D., Duke University
Assistant Professor Vess, M.A., Vanderbilt
Assistant Professor Washington, M.A., Duke.
Professor Dickinson, Ph.D., George Peabody.
Associate Professor Obenchain, A.M., Columbia.
Visiting Sociology Professor Elmer, Ph.D.

Dr. Allen, Mrs. Washington, Dr. Dale, Mr. Vess

Under the division of Social Sciences come the departments of Economics, History, Political Science and Sociology. Among the various activities this department has participated in, the Freedom Foundation is foremost. Effort is made to draw from the experiences of mankind an awareness of historical perspective, and a sense of values so that the student may deal more thoughtfully and more effectively with the problems of the present and the future. They espouse the truth that the men and nations of history are instruments in the accomplishment of divine purpose.

DIVISION OF TEACHER EDUCATION

WILLIAM D. MURRAY
Chairman, Division of Teacher Education

Faculty Members include:

Professor Murray, Ed.D., University of Utah
Distinguished Professor Simmons, Ph.D., Peabody
Professor F. Carter, Ed.D., University of Illinois
Professor J. Carter, Ed.D., University of Illinois
Professor Garner, Ed.D., University of Kestu, Columbia
Associate Professor Foreman, A.M., University of Ala-

Associate Professor Stott, Ph.D., University of Alabama
Instructor Martin, M.Ed., Auburn
Assistant Professor Funderburke, M.S., University of Alabama
Instructor Moncus, M.S., Columbia University

Dr. Garner, Dr. Stott, Dr. F. Carter

Instructor Moncus, Assistant Professor Funderburke: Home economics.

Mr. Martin, Miss Forman, Dr. J. Carter, Dr. Simmons

STUDENT LIFE

Among us extra-curricular activities and academic work are running a close race for "the most important." Much of the time we try to ignore the studies and turn to the lighter side of student life, which includes everything from eating in the Snack Bar to attending a lecture or art exhibit.

Our activities encompass Homecoming, H-Day, Concert and Lecture Series, plays, and graduation. All of these are governed by the calendar, but the one activity which is incessant, especially this Leap Year, is woman's pursuit of man and man's futile attempt to escape.

RUSH WEEK

The Chi Omegas are entertaining their rushees with a skit.

Women's rush began with a luncheon and fashion show. Here Ricky Harvey models for the actives and rushees.

A week important to all Greeks—both men and women—is Rush Week. This is an exciting, yet tense time for both actives and rushees. Women's rush was held before school began and men's rush took place at mid-term.

Mr. Martin and Walter LaGroue, inter-Fraternity Council president, look on as Andy Collins signs up for rush.

HIGH SCHOOL DAY

Approximately 3,000 high school students participated in the activities of High School Day held on September 28. Students attended conferences, were shown around the campus, and were served a picnic lunch as guests of the college.

A top crowd turned out for the Hootenanny presented for high schoolers and Howard students.

APO guide, Mike Fink is conducting a tour through the gymnasium.

This folk-singing twosome provided music for the hootenanny.

Entertaining the large crowd at the Hootenanny are Jeaneane Haines and Danny Smith of Atlanta.

Howard's own folk singer, Angie Grooms contributed much to the Hootenanny.

Margie Goerner is talking to Mr. Spirit himself, Tom Sorrells.

Lambda Chi Alpha's bowling display won the best fraternity display award.

Beta Sigma Omicron's display of the Statesman climbing the victory ladder won the best sorority display award.

This group of eleven beautiful girls are members of the 1964 Homecoming Court.

Much hard work, both day and night, went into making the campus decorations.

HOME COMING

A long-awaited and planned for Homecoming took place on Saturday, October 19. Much preparation and hard work went into making it a success.

A huge bonfire the night before Homecoming aroused school spirit and made everyone ready for Delta State.

Beaming queen, Nancy Etheredge, gets a kiss from last year's queen, Flo Taylor.

Out of eleven beautiful girls, Nancy Etheredge was chosen 1964 Homecoming Queen.

Marilyn Parker, Sandy Brown and Mickey Momon carry out the true spirit of Rat Week.

RAT WEEK

Traditional Rat Week saw hundreds of freshmen truly playing the parts of "rats" in crazy costumes on Tacky Day, carrying umbrellas and suitcases on Dress-Up Day, and wearing their clothes backward on Backwards Day.

Ann Boynton, Miss Howard, bestows a kiss on the proud winner of the Rat Race, Wayne Gillis. Robert McAlpine looks on.

Freshmen such as this one were quite conspicuous on Tacky Day.

CHRISTMAS

Eagerly-awaiting the holidays both students and faculty participated in countless Christmas activities. Students decorated their rooms and the campus and carried out the "True Christmas Spirit."

Howard under a blanket of snow looked lovely during the Holidays

Delle Flowers, Miss Christmas Spirit, is shown hanging up her Christmas stocking.

President Wright and his family send greetings at Christmas time.

Proudly displaying their door decoration are Margaret Logan, and Ann Morris.

Decorating the tree are Linda Payne, Glenda Evans, and Jane Stillings.

The Lettermen were enthusiastically received by a large Howard group at the beginning of Twirp Week.

These girls, heads of Twirp-Week committees, are checking their finances to see if they have enough money to twirp the gents of their choice.

TWIRP WEEK

The week of February 24-28 was designated Twirp Week. This annual event saw many important events including Step Sing, choosing the "friendliest," and the Lettermen.

Smiling proudly are Sharon Lester, Mrs. Washington, Teddy Jackson, and Dr. Luncelford, who were chosen friendliest by the student body.

Representing their winning step-sing groups are Carolyn Stone of Beta Sigma Omicron, Ross Davis of Pi Kappa Phi, Tommy Smith of Junior class, and Bill Pope of Tri Beta.

Rating second in the class division was the sophomore class.

Dr. Jack R. Noffsinger from Winston-Salem, North Carolina was the featured speaker during this week.

CHRISTIAN FOCUS WEEK

A week important to religious life of the campus took place February 17-21. Students attended inspirational services and seminars.

Dr. Noffsinger found his way into the dormitories, classrooms, and morning meditations with his enlightening talks.

This hard working group composed of Ken Bush, Jeannie Robinson, Charlotte McGuire, Melba Middleton, Monty White, Ben Connell, Charles Langston, Dave Folsom, and Edwin Graves, planned the events and services of this important week.

Students enjoyed hearing the male chorale from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville.

ART EXHIBITS

Throughout the year Howard's artists exhibit their best work at art shows. Much talent and many good paintings are seen in these exhibits. Also the works of well-known professionals are often exhibited in the gallery.

The annual art events are climaxed by the student exhibit of outstanding paintings and crafts evolving from class work.

The Kappa Pi sidewalk show gives students a chance to buy and sell according to individual taste.

Angelo Granata displays his cast iron works.

Mrs. Pettus Price exhibits some of her best paintings.

A Howard student visits a children's art show.

Charles Hand, Pat Sanderson, and Mack Norton arrange paintings for the exhibit.

SIGMA NU EVENTS

Jane Fhares receives her trophy for Miss Sigma Nu Events from Skip Wilson.

This group of lovely girls competed for the title of Miss Sigma Nu Events.

The girls try their luck in the three-legged race.

Sigma Nu Events is an annual affair during Greek Week. Sororities compete in various relays and contests. This year's winner was Beta Sigma Omicron.

These very serious contests include such grueling tasks as egg throwing, three-legged races, tri-cycle races, and pie-eating contests. All of these activities are ruled by Miss Sigma Nu Events.

Another contest was the wheel barrow race.

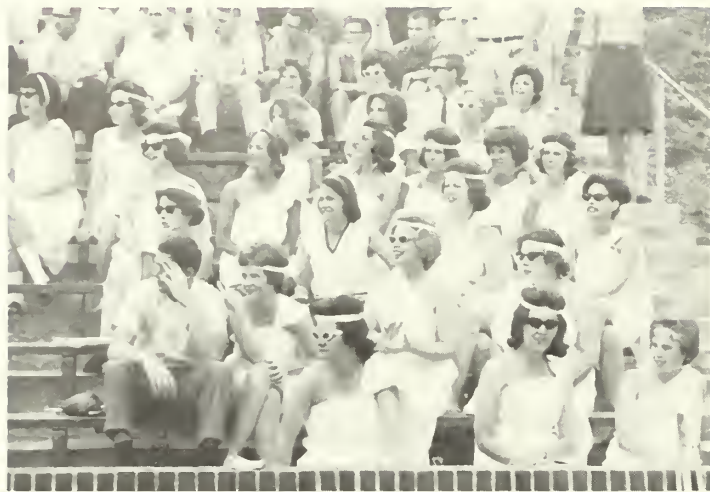

Some of the events, such as pie eating became rather messy.

GREEK WEEK

Appropriately dressed, the Phi Mu's view the various events of the Olympics.

The Greek audience enjoys watching the boys trying their skill at teasing the girls' hair at the Mr. and Miss Talent Contest.

The emphasis is definitely on the Greeks during this annual event which took place this year April 19-24. Each sorority and fraternity sponsored an event during this week. The week was climaxed by the appearance of a singing group, Town Criers. Chosen Greek God and Goddess were Pike's Mike James and Alpha Delta Pi's Diana Fuqua.

Shown below are the candidates for Greek Goddess—Melba Middleton, Rickey Harvey, Sharon Lester, Becky Dreaden, Sylvia Gibson, Tica Johnson, Diana Fuqua, Pat Perkins, Pam Paschal, Phyllis Davis.

Chosen by the Greeks, as God and Goddess were Mike James and Diana Fuqua.

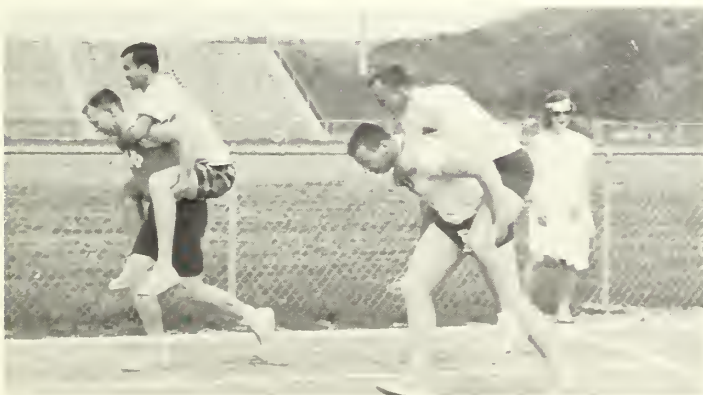

Terry Eastman applies the finishing touches to her "girl" in the Mr. and Miss Talent contest.

The girls show their athletic ability in the Powder Puff Football Game between the Greeks and the Independents.

Winning the titles of Mr. and Miss Talent were Dianne Crews and Larry Harris.

Greek men are shown in the Piggy Back race in Phi Mu Olympics.

The boys prove their skill in the Phi Mu relays.

MASQUERS

Outstanding speech and dramatic students compose the organization known as the Masquers. The plays presented this year by the Masquers were "A Midsummer Night's Dream," "Christ in the Concrete City," and "The Glass Menagerie."

These excellent dramatic productions received much praise from students as well as outside critics. Our own "theater-in-the-round" is the repeated scene of most of our cultured entertainment.

The Glass Menagerie was well received by Howard students.

Scenes such as this one appeared in A Midsummer Night's Dream.

Mary Jean Creamer, Rodger Poe, Ed Jones, Bert Miller and Buttons Clark gave outstanding performances in Christ in the Concrete City.

Sherlee Scribner dominates this scene from A Midsummer Night's Dream.

In February Si Zentor and his orchestra appeared in Seibert Hall.

Climaxing H Day was the concert of Peter Nero.

CONCERT AND LECTURE SERIES

One of the most favorably received groups was the Smothers Brothers.

The Lettermen, one of the most popular vocal groups in the country, delighted the Howard audience in February.

Howard students enjoyed excellent concerts and lectures throughout the year by outstanding artists. Serving as chairman of this committee was Jeannie Robinson.

The series included a variety of presentations to appeal to any taste—the facetious, the musical, the serious. This was truly a year to remember with the Lettermen, the Smothers Brothers, Si Zentnor, Peter Nero, and Robert Frost's daughter.

For their clever costumes, Diana Zacharias and Pete McDuff were named H-Day costume winners.

H-DAY

The Sadie Howard theme was enthusiastically carried out by students on H-Day, April 28. Following lunch, a series of events were held. These included a tug of war, pep rally, Sadie Howard Race, skits, track and swimming meets. Climaxing the full day was the crowning of Mr. and Miss Howard at the Peter Nero concert. Most of us will agree we had "a wallopin' good time."

One of the many events of H-Day was the tug-of-war between the classes.

The lucky girls who were fast enough to catch husbands were married by Preacher Tom Sorrells.

The cheerleaders helped keep spirits high on H-Day.

A typical Sadie Howard character was Peg King.

Dressed appropriately in Daisie Mae costumes for H-Day are Ruth Wells and Alice Hardy.

Winning the sorority participation trophy for H-Day were the Phi Mus for this clever skit.

Winning the coveted titles of Mr. and Miss Howard were Nancy Etheredge and Paul Miller. Runners-up were Ruth Wells and Teddy Jackson.

TAP DAY AND SCHOLARSHIP DAY

Two important days in the life of Howard are Scholarship Day and Tap Day. Students are recognized for their outstanding scholarship, service and leadership.

The name Scholarship Day is self-explanatory; honor roll students assemble to be recognized according to averages. These students are classed according to classes in Class Honors and High Class Honors.

Tap Day is a really exciting event, for Alpha Lambda Delta and Hypatia welcome new women members. Also Trident and Omicron Delta Kappa, men's honorary organizations, tap new members.

These students are recognized in Convocation for their scholastic achievements.

Smiling proudly is Janet Davis who has just been tapped for Alpha Lambda Delta.

Being tapped for Omicron Delta Kappa is junior, Billy Bishop.

Enjoying a reception in their honor are students who have attained high scholastic standing.

The seniors were seated together in their caps and gowns.

SENIOR CHAPEL

The last Convocation of the year saw the recognition of the 1964 graduating class. Trophies and awards were given to deserving seniors.

Among these awards were the various departmental ones including pharmacy, social studies, foreign languages, music, law, education, business, as well as general trophies to honor those deserving students who exhibited leadership, character, and success.

Clayton McCoy receives the high honor of being the senior with the highest scholastic average.

Hut Harper administers the oath of office to next year's student government officers.

Dean Fincher congratulates some of the seniors who received awards.

Baccalaureate is a time of regalia and retrospect.

GRADUATION

The culmination of the college career is, needless to say, graduation. The concluding activities — Baccalaureate, Candlelight Dinner, and Commencement — evoke varying emotions from faculty, administration, family, and Seniors—regret, joy, boredom, or fear. This is at once a time for evaluation of past, present, and future.

Seniors join ranks of alumni.

Proud parents and friends watch long commencement march.

Students accept diplomas with pride.

CLASSES

Among us Classes means more than just taking down every word a professor utters or failing and passing examinations. Belonging to one certain class, whether Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, or Senior, means pride and spirit in one's group. It means co-operation and friendship.

Above all it means rising through the ranks from lowly rat, through sophomoric mediocrity and the anxious junior status, to full-fledged seniority and superiority.

A class is also a group of students of equal status who compete against the other classes for a winning Homecoming float, for the fleeting moment of superiority that follows winning the Tug-of-War at H-Day, and most of all possessing the Step-Sing trophy after the long, grueling weeks of practice.

Freshmen don their rat hats and finest apparel.

The long road

to success is always torturous, but the journey from Freshman, green and silly, to Senior, sophisticated and wise, is particularly exaggerated. Freshman orientation, in which one is pampered with teas, counsel, and get-acquainted parties, gives the newcomer the false conception that life here at Howard will be all recreation. Then Rat Week and tests begin—this is really college life. Nearly every story has its happy ending though. Here at Howard the tale usually ends in graduation and marriage; either is worth the study and struggle.

Orientation begins with a lovely reception for freshmen and faculty.

FEATURES

The South has always been noted for her "Belles," and Howard is typically proud of her own beauties. Customarily the Miss Entre Nous Beauty Pageant is held annually in the winter to choose and honor the most beautiful girls at Howard.

Here are featured the few who were chosen by Birmingham judges as the most outstanding in beauty, poise, dignity, and personality among us. . .

ENTRE NOUS PAGEANT

Fifty-seven very nervous, but decidedly beautiful, girls gathered at a tea before the three judges: Don Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Bobbye Weaver, and Sylvia Pittman. Of these, twenty participated in the pageant nervously awaiting the results.

In a "Winter Wonderland" Howard students and guests enjoyed the talent and gorgeous spectacle of girls in white evening dresses, snowflakes, and white trees.

Attired in white, the finalists await the moment of entry.

VINCENT EDWARDS

Vincent Edwards, popular star of television's "Ben Casey", chose Dorothy Haney as the "Most Photogenic" in the 1963 Miss Entre Nous Pageant.

Mr. Edwards "found it difficult to choose one winner" from the selection of Howard's most beautiful girls. As is the custom, all fifty-seven contestants' pictures were sent to Hollywood.

"Dr. Ben Casey" requested that the message be relayed that he "wishes all the girls his very best."

THE GREEKS

Intramural competition, Greek Week, pledge swaps, banquets, rush, meetings, pledging, initiation, house parties, elections, fines—these are but a few of the things which make up sorority and fraternity life.

Then if any time is left, the Greeks devote this to scholarship. But all this rush, rush combines to produce the one compensation factor—sisterhood or brotherhood.

This is life among us Greeks: Alpha Delta Pi, Beta Sigma Omicron, Chi Omega, Delta Zeta, Phi Mu, Delta Sigma Phi, Lambda Chi Alpha, Pi Kappa Alpha, Pi Kappa Phi, or Sigma Nu.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

The Interfraternity Council is the main governing body of the five fraternities on Howard's campus. This group sets up all rules and penalties concerning rush and inter-fraternal relations. It also has charge of an annual picnic in the fall for the entire campus. The offices rotate regularly among the five fraternities.

As the oldest secret society for women, Alpha Delta Pi continues to be a leader on Howard's campus today. The three top women's organizations on campus, Hypatia, Service Guild, and Associated Women Students, as well as three scholastic honoraries have chosen ADPi's as their presidents. Alpha Delta Pi also holds the Vice President's and Treasurer's positions on the Women's Dormitory Council, five class offices and the SGA treasurer. Who's Who contained six of our sisters while four were nominated for Service Awards.

Our open motto, "We Live For Each Other," is exhibited in our ability to work together. During the wee hours of the night each sister worked diligently to complete the lawn decoration that received second place in Homecoming. (Some of us even found time to help work on the fraternity decorations!) West Side Story provided the theme for our Step Sing in which we placed second. This also provided fun and a time for the sisters to work together under the patient guidance of Deanna Moon.

The diamond of ADPi shines also in the field of beauty and talent. In the Entre Nous Pageant, Alpha Dels captured three of the five beauty positions, Miss Congeniality, Most Attractive in Sportswear, and two Favorites. First Alternate Miss Homecoming and another of the finalists are ADPi's, as well as Miss Howard. Three of our sisters exhibited their talent during the year in the A Cappella Choir, while one was on the varsity cheerleading squad, and another two were freshman cheerleaders. One stepped high in front of the band, and two other sisters walked away with awards won in debate. On the social scene, three fraternities, Pi Kappa Alpha, Pi Kappa Phi, and Lambda Chi Alpha chose ADPi's as their sweethearts.

Under the leadership of Sara Jim Marrs, first semester and Bingham Graves, second semester, the pledges learned the meaning of ADPi and contributed much to the year. Because of outstanding grades, two were chosen for Alpha Lambda Delta, and one was chosen as Pi Kappa Alpha Pledge Sweetheart. At the spring banquet the pledges presented Ann Boynton as best active, while the active chapter honored Dottie Goodwin with the Best Pledge Award.

Diamond Jubilee year for the Beta Sigs throughout the world added numerous sparkling and brilliant gems to Beta Beta Chapter's collection of assets.

Our collection of carats began to multiply when our new and old members joined forces in accumulating campus treasures.

First we began to rob the fraternities by trying to retire their most precious trophies. Beta Sigs captured for the second consecutive year the Lambda Chi 440, with Pledge Sweetheart of Lambda Chi Martha Anne Fain looking on, and the Sigma Nu Events trophies.

Having stripped the fraternities of their wealth, Beta sisters set out to conquer campus crowns. In the queenly sphere, Nancy Howard Jackson abdicated her Miss Entre Nous throne to sister Carol Cross, attended by First Alternate Patty Lollar and sister Beauties, Pat Herndon and Rickey Harvey. Sporting her crown is Dianne Crews, Basketball Queen. Another member of the campus royal family is Sharon Lester, Friendliest girl and Alternate Miss Homecoming. Sporting their BSO jewels and cheering the Bulldogs on were Freshman Cheerleaders, Marilyn Parker, Dianne Crews and Sharon Frith; and replacing their sister Varsity Cheerleaders, Rickey Harvey and Sharon Lester, are Marilyn and Dianne.

Toiling together for the two major competitive campus events, Betas earned first place in homecoming decorations and Step-Sing.

In the field of intramurals BSO's totaled top weight points to win the intramural gem with Tully Jimmerson as Sports Chairman.

And beginning to close the lid on our multi-jeweled treasure chest, Betas added the finishing touch. The awarding of the Sigma Nu Best Sorority Trophy for the second consecutive year points to Beta participation in campus clubs and activities.

This was Chi Omega's first big year at Howard! Colonized in the spring of 1963, Zeta Zeta, the 134th chapter of Chi O, was officially installed on September 28, 1964. The installation was a really exciting event, with such distinguished guests as Elizabeth Dyer, National President, and many visitors from nearby chapters. Our next thrilling event was a welcoming tea given by the Pikes the following week.

Starting out the year there were twelve charter members and seventeen pledges from fall rush. As a group we participated with enthusiasm in Homecoming, Step-Sing, and Intramurals. There were also our own special activities, such as collecting food for a needy family at Christmas; and our "Eleusinian Banquet", in honor of Founder's Day on April 5.

With spring came new actives, new pledges, and awards. Just before the first pledges went active on February 15, Pam Paschall was chosen by the actives as "Model Pledge." Pam was also presented as "Outstanding Chi O Pledge" by the Phi Mu's at the Panhellenic Tea. The Chi O pledges chose Pat O'Neal as their "Favorite Big Sister."

Outstanding Chi O's include: Nancy Wurtele, President, who was chosen for "Who's Who", a member of the Homecoming Court, a Bulldog Beauty, and a Pike Calendar Girl. Jane Gardner was chosen for Bulldog Beauty and also president of the French Club. Nina Beck was another member of the Homecoming Court. Jerry Derrick was another Pike Calendar Girl. Catherine Allen was a winner in the Colonial Dames Historical Essay Contest. Our "water baby", Janice Prewett, was star of the Water Show.

Chi O's were also active in art, drama, debate, and student publications such as the ENTRE NOUS, CRIMSON, and BULLPUP.

"Great" is one of the best ways to describe a Delta Zeta's life at Howard this year.

Parties have come in a never-ending line with the Spring Banquet at the Airport Motel and the Christmas banquet at the Tutwiler giving the girls a chance to look their most beautiful.

Speaking of beautiful girls, the fraternities seem to agree. Pi Kappa Phi and Delta Sigma Phi have already chosen DZ's as their pledge sweethearts. With DZ's bevy of beauties this is not surprising.

Delta Zeta was not passed by in the Miss Entre Nous contest when Serena Cochran was selected the Best looking in evening wear.

When rush rolled around our ranks were easily replenished with pledges that our members had met in the BSU Choir, A Cappella Choir, Ladies' Chorus, debate tournaments, Delta Omicron, and many other organizations.

Sandra Martin is president of Delta Omicron this year, and two other DZ's hold major offices. We have turned up in play after play as Serena represents us. We yell our loudest when our own Beverly Bacon leads us in the cheering section. Angi ranked in Miss Alabama's top ten and Dannie Robinson was a finalist also.

At State Day, the Delta Zeta state-wide convention, Alpha Pi beat all the other Delta Zeta chapters to win trophies for the best attendance and the most improved chapter.

We welcomed a sister chapter at Southern when our alums gave us a gala party at The Club as they do several times a year. This new chapter helps Delta Zeta keep its rating as number one as it was voted by national panhellenic this year.

What is so unusual about Jackie McFarland, Judy Goodwin, Pat Swindle, Beverly Bacon, Lucy Barrow, Lou Ann Smith, and Becky Thomas? They have all had their last names changed to match their husbands'.

Yes, pledge pins, trophies, engagement rings, pink roses, DZ badges, and tears of happiness and pride have all blended to make this the kind of year every sorority wishes it could always have.

Serena Cochran, Kay Hamilton, and Becky Dreaden all don the Irish green to entertain at a Delta Zeta rush party.

Phi Mu, founded at Wesleyan College in 1852, was brought to Howard's campus by the founding of Alpha Gamma chapter in 1924. On to the more recent history of our Alpha Gamma chapter—for instance, our activities for the year 1963-1964. Well—where shall we begin—

It's certain that the Phi Mu's keep very busy in campus activities: for example, Phi Mu's are members of such organizations as ACE, Dorm Council, Debate Team, Eta Epsilon, French Club, Math Club, Spanish Club, SNEA, Tau Beta Sigma, Ushers' Club, BULLPUP, and CRIMSON staffs, and many hold offices in these organizations.

Honors bestowed on our girls include: six to appear in Who's Who—Julie Ann Bodiford, Ann Christian, Carole Fishburne, Lindal Fletcher, Diane Seymour, Flo Taylor, and Monetta Moak; Service Awards—Ann Christian, Harriott Dixon, Julie Ann Bodiford, and Diane Seymour; debate honors won by Lindal Fletcher and Pam Scarborough; "Miss Alabama" finalists—Mona Hurlbert and Sandra Lewis; "Bama Belle"—Mona Hurlbert. It's a proven fact that Phi Mu's are popular on campus—Why just take a look: Greek Goddess for 1963 was Monetta Moak; Bulldog Beauties include Pat Perkins, Shirley Walker, Kit Crump, Sandra Lewis, Susan Gaye, and Janie Dobson; our Pike calendar girls are Betty Viness and Pat Perkins; Sigma Nu pledge sweetheart is Claudia Lewis; and favorites in the Miss Entre Nous contest, Lindal Fletcher and Monetta Moak.

Phi Mu's intelligence shows in those "brains" on the Dean's List and in the members of various honorary societies such as Alpha Lambda Delta, Hypatia, Kappa Mu Epsilon, Masquers, Pi Delta Phi, Service Guild, Sigma Tau Delta, and Theta Delta Phi.

We also boast majorettes; Maid of Cotton of Choctaw County, Charlotte Brooks; student deans; counselors; class and SGA officers; editor of the CRIMSON, Carole Fishburne; and assistant editor of the BULLPUP, Monetta Moak.

Phi Mu's took time out during Christmas vacation to collect money on Blue Crutch Cay; and we take pride in the orphan whom we support in Troy. Among our campus-sponsored events were Phi Mu Olympics during Greek Week and a fashion show.

As you can easily tell Phi Mu's are pretty busy girls—with all this and an active social life too (checked the list of those lavaliered, pinned, or engaged lately?).

"Flappers" Betty Viness and Marilyn Rant work behind the scenes at a Phi Mu rush party.

Bound together as friends and guided by their secret rituals, fraternity men learn to study; to aid one another; to exchange and discuss ideas, and to work or play as a team. In a fraternity an individual is vital, respected, and needed because of what he is. Thus the Beta Chi chapter of Delta Sigma Phi was established on Howard's campus.

There are over one hundred chapters of Delta Sigma Phi located throughout the world. Delta Sig is rated among the top ten fraternities in the nation.

The Beta Chi Chapter has striven to encourage scholarship, develop personality, enlarge contacts, provide social activities, and induce cooperative living, initiative, and leadership.

Among our many activities we include membership in various campus organizations. We are represented in: Alpha Kappa Psi, business fraternity; Phi Alpha Theta, history fraternity; Kappa Psi, pharmaceutical fraternity; The Association of Business Majors; Pi Gamma Mu; Alpha Phi Omega; Kappa Delta Pi; and I.F.C.

The Delta Sigs also have a full calendar of social events. We begin with the rush parties, then pledge-swaps, Founders Day, Shipwreck Party, and the Carnation Banquet. Our miscellaneous activities include hayrides, spaghetti suppers, bowling and skating parties. The climax of our social calendar is our annual houseparty at Panama City, Florida.

Lambda Chi Alpha began its 40th year at Howard with the beginning of the new year. Our national fraternity was founded at Boston University in 1909 and now has 153 chapters with over 83,000 members.

To get the year started we sponsored our annual 440 yard Bicycle Race at half-time of the High School Day football game. The chapter worked hard and won first place in Homecoming Decorations. Next the big sorority kidnap was "pulled off" with excellent results. We then managed to win second place in Step Sing.

Our main social events this year were the Homecoming Party, annual Pledge-Active Party, Founder's Day, Crescent Girl Presentation, and the Spring House Party.

Capable men served as leaders and were recognized on campus in the following organizations: vice-president of the Senior Class, Business Manager of The Crimson, Band Drum Major, president of Math Club, vice-president and secretary of Phi Delta Chi, Treasurer of Orbis Scientarium Society, president of Kappa Kappa Psi, vice-president of B.S.U. Choir, Secretary of Kappa Mu Epsilon, "Mr. Talent", Shamblin Award for Outstanding Intramural Athlete for 2 consecutive years. Other brothers were found in O.D.K., Tri-Beta, American Pharmaceutical Association, Circle K, APO, Association of Business Majors, AKPsi, AED, H-Club, Entre Nous, and Physical Education Majors club.

All in all we had a successful year. Most important we have grown in the spirit of brotherhood that makes our fraternity mean so much to us.

Another year has passed, and Pi Kappa Alpha began its 53rd year in fine fashion, by returning to campus. As one of the first fraternities established at Howard, we are proud of our traditions and of our men.

In scholarship—we had a little (we recorded the highest single semester fraternity average ever recorded at Howard). In pledges we have many—even though some have died since the beginning of school. In love, some of our brothers got to be sorority sweethearts, and then there was the week-end when the whole chapter got pinned. (The laundry broke all our zippers.)

This year, as always, PiKa was active in all phases of college life. Alpha Pi began the year with President of S.G.A., two senators, Freshman class treasurer, President of O.D.K., President and Vice President of Association of Business Majors, President I.F.C., Vice-President A.P.O. active chapter, President and Secretary of A.P.O. pledge class, Secretary A.K. Psi, and members in campus organizations.

Memories of the year include . . . Dream Girl Banquet, Calendars, Founders Day, Step-Sing, Homecoming, and House Party.

In a more serious note, we would like to clear up the rumor that we are considered the top social group on campus. This could be true but it reduces competition which is vitally significant to our maintaining this status.

Looking back over the past year, we Pikes can proudly shout, "I'm glad that I'm a good PiKa, I'm glad that I'm a good PiKa, I love all my brothers, to heck with the others, I'm glad I'm a good Pika" Yee Yee Yee !!!

The end of an industrious (?) summer brought back the Pi Kappa Phi's. No casualties, pin-wise, were recorded although some were reported in the making.

October 4 marked an unforgettable date for the twenty-three brothers who formed the first active chapter of Pi Kappa Phi at Howard since 1952. Proudly wearing the fraternity symbols, the brothers laid plans for the coming year.

Our rush program netted eight worthy pledges, and plans were made immediately for continued rush.

With homecoming fast approaching, a hasty display was completed . . . the result was a hasty decision by the judges.

Highlights of the year included: the reign of our Rose Queen, Betty Brummett; Tica Johnson as pledge sweetheart; the Pi Kapp Packers; our cultural social calendar; East Texas State; the cool pledge swaps; old strippers; ATD's; Leeds, U.S.A.; splash parties; District Conclave; Lillies lost (?) pin; cigars; the Rose Ball; and many other prodigious memories, such as first place in Step-Sing!

With the spirit of a growing, moving organization and genuine brotherhood, we impatiently await the coming year.

The largest fraternity on Howard's campus, Iota chapter of Sigma Nu Fraternity is in its 85th consecutive year.

In addition to winning the scholarship trophy for the 11th straight semester, Iota chapter posted one of the highest academic averages ever recorded by a Greek Fraternity on Howard's campus.

Completing its second straight undefeated football season, the Sigma Nu's started at the forefront in intramural competition. The fraternity is also well represented in varsity sports, placing four men each on the football, basketball and baseball teams.

One of the fraternity's proudest possessions is the Alpha Delta Pi's 1963 trophy awarded to the Outstanding Fraternity on campus.

Sigma Nu brothers are members of many organizations on campus and hold many key positions, such as president of Circle K, Alpha Phi Omega, Baptist Student Union, Head resident counselor, editor of the Bull Pup, and president and secretary of the sophomore class.

Other activities of Sigma Nu's include membership in Kappa Mu Epsilon, Phi Mu Alpha, Beta Beta Beta, Alpha Epsilon Delta, Phi Delta Chi, American Chemical Society, Publications Board, Crimson staff, Howard College band, O.D.K., Trident, Who's Who, and the counseling staff.

Sigma Nu has won the Phi Mu Olympics for the past two years and placed first among fraternities on H-Day. Both the active and pledge sweethearts of Beta Sigma Omicron are members of Sigma Nu.

ATHLETICS

When leaves begin to fall, Howard students get out the cushions and old megaphones and follow the crowd to the football games. As players beat their brains out, the band members toot their heads off, and the cheerleaders stomp their feet off, the fans simply yell at the referees.

Then with winter comes basketball and fans turn to the indoors to watch the Bulldogs swap baskets with opposing hoopsters.

With the first breath of spring, spectators return to the outdoors to watch the baseballers bang out base hits, netmen slam lobs, and golfers run in long putts.

Every Fall a certain intangible spirit known as Football Fever descends on Howard, and this year was no exception. At four home and six out-of-state games, fans saw the 1963 edition of the Bulldogs roll to a 5-3-1 season's record. And at season's end when honors were handed out, several players received theirs. Star halfback

Reggie Allen signed a Pro contract with the Dallas Cowboys. Wally Burnham, center-linebacker, received honorable mention on the Williamson Little All-American list. Howard also placed three out of ten on the All-Alabama Small College first team.

STATE ROMPS PAST BULLDOGS...

Mississippi State 43

Howard 0

When Howard took to the field against Mississippi State at Starkville, it marked the first Bulldog encounter with an S E C team since 1945. The Bulldogs lost 43-0 on this hot September afternoon to a mighty State team that was to prove to be the strongest in years defeating such teams as Auburn.

The Bulldogs were in there all the time, and in Head Coach Paul Davis' words, "They never gave up . . . they're gonna win some ball games this year"—and they did.

Howard's determination was evidenced by the fact that the Maroons didn't score from 13 minutes left to play until ten seconds remained in the game.

ALLEN DASH GETS 7-0 HOWARD TRIUMPH

Howard 7

Southeastern Louisiana 0

A muggy, dismal day did not keep the Howard Gridgers from brightening the day for Howard students and several thousand visiting high schoolers as they defeated the Southeastern Louisiana Lions 7-0. This marked the first time since 1959 that the Lions have been held scoreless. The game featured a tremendous team effort. Every man who played did so with the enthusiasm that makes underdogs winners. Of course the game had its particular standouts such as Reggie Allen and his spectacular runs—especially the pass interception run back. "He ran better Saturday than I've ever seen him," commented Coach Scott. Keeling's punting kept the Lions deep in their own territory most of the afternoon. The Dogs held the Lions for no gain four downs on the Howard 13 yard line. Southeastern only penetrated Howard territory two other times all afternoon. Allen, Wyatt, and Cruce all had good defensive games in the secondary. The Bulldogs defeated a mighty good football team that Saturday. Coach Galloway that Coach Scott beat had seen his teams win the previous 25 of 30 games to win the Gulf States Conference Coach of the Year in 1960 and 1962.

Southeastern is stopped by a stout Hord defense.

HOWARD FALLS BEFORE McNEESE POWER 28-0

Howard 0

McNeese 28

McNeese State Cowboys, favored to win championship honors in the Gulf States Conference this season, showed why at Lake Charles, La., as they routed Howard 28-0. Ironically, Howard made its best offensive showing of the season, FB Larry Lackey leading 149 yds. of Howard rushing with 64 yards in 11 carries. Howard's first impressive move in the game came just before the first half ended. The Bulldog defense dug in and headed the Cowboys off at the Howard 15. After McNeese had tallied its last touchdown early in the 3rd quarter, Howard's offense opened up and marched 68 yards to the 12 yard marker. Center-line-backer Wally Burnham stopped a Cowboy scoring threat midway in the fourth period by intercepting a Trahon pass and running it back seven yards. Two plays later, Wyatt fumbled and McNeese recovered, driving to the one where Bobby Austin recovered a Cowboy fumble. Howard punted out and McNeese hung on to the ball unto the finish.

'DOGS DEFEAT INDIANS 13-7 FOR SECOND VICTORY

Howard 13

N. E. Louisiana State 7

Amazing Howard, displaying a fighting team effort, dumped favored N. E. La. State Indians 13-7 against the heaviest of odds at Monroe. Junior HB Richard Cruce scored both touchdowns and had one called back. In the jubilant dressing room after the battle Coach Bubba Scott happily said, "It was a tremendous team victory. I was proud of the way every boy played and the efforts each gave." During the first quarter Wyatt connected with Jacob for 37 yds. to the 21-yard line. At the end of this drive Richard Cruce went over for the 6 points. Before the half ended, Cruce scored again from 3 yards away, completing a 49-yard march directed by 2nd string QB David Hall. On the first play of the 2nd half, Cruce returned the opening kickoff in a brilliant 95 yard run. Midway in the third period NE moved 80 yds. in 13 plays to score.

Halfback Dave Currey springs for more yardage.

BULLDOGS DOWN DELTA

Howard 6

Delta State 0

A tremendous punting game which had held the Howard Bulldogs at bay for more than a half suddenly went sour on Delta State halfway through the 3rd period of a memorable Homecoming game. And with that break—a 20-yard punt which carried out only as far as Delta's 31, the 'Dogs charged in for a 6-0 victory before 6000 Seibert Stadium fans. LH Larry Lackey, QB Larry Wyatt, and FB Ed Donahoo alternated in punching the ball through and around the Green and White defense 'til with the ball on Delta's two, RH Cruce slammed between LG Mudge and LT Melof to score the touchdown which meant Howard's third victory of the season.

HOWARD COASTS HOME WITH A 26-14 VICTORY OVER MEXICO

Howard 26

Mexico 14

A scrappy Mexican outfit gave Howard all it wanted in the second half, but the Bulldogs held on to a 20-0 halftime lead and coasted to a 26-14 victory in a "South of the Border" clash with Mexico University. The game, played in the mud, was staged in the 110,000 seat Olympic Stadium, witnessed by some 25,000 spectators, one of the largest crowds ever to see the Howard Bulldogs play. President Leslie S. Wright kicked the ball off in pre-game ceremonies, and then the Pumas kicked to Howard, beginning the international battle. Reggie Allen started the action off with a bang by returning the opening kick 64 yards to Mexico's 32 yard line. Eleven plays later Ed Donahoo scored on a fourth down situation and Rex Keeling converted. At the end of the same period, Larry Lackey ran to add six more points. Keeling's kick was wide and the score stood 13-0. A 53-yard march in ten plays, capped by a two-yard end sweep by Larry Wyatt, got six points to make it a comfortable 20-0 halftime lead. The second half saw an aroused Puma team strike for two touchdowns and 14 points. Keeling closed out the scoring with a 23-yard field goal late in the contest. Howard, who amassed 366 yards on an unbelievable 83 rushes, piled up 27 first downs to Mexico's 7.

KEELING FIELD GOAL GIVES 'DOGS TIE WITH CHOCTAWS

Howard 3

Mississippi College 3

A superb goal line stand in the second quarter by the Mississippi College Choctaws put an end to Howard's hopes for a fourth consecutive win. However, a perfect 37-yard Rex Keeling field goal in the same period enabled the Bulldogs to carry home a 3-all deadlock. Howard's first tie since 1958 gave the 'Dogs a 4-2-1 record, two games away from season's end. Early in the second period Reggie Allen returned a Mississippi College punt 11 yards to the Choctaw 4. On the next play Fullback Larry Lackey dashed over left tackle for 44 yards to the 2 only to be halted by a stout defense that held the 'Dogs four downs. With 9:45 left in the half, Keeling booted a high arching field goal that split the uprights. Mississippi drove to Howard's 30 in the fourth period before Reggie Allen intercepted a Miller pass killing the drive. With 20 seconds left, Clem Stovall booted a 36-yard field goal to tie the game 3-3. The Choctaw homecoming was played at Robinson Field in Clinton in perfect football weather before some 4000 fans.

A couple of days before the game, an equally exciting event had begun. Starting from a Thursday night pep rally on the Howard campus, Howard's fraternity men begun a relay to carry a victory torch to the site of the Howard-Mississippi game. Stormy weather proved a formidable adversary during the run, but the Greek men—alternating by fraternities, each of which was responsible for six miles at a time—kept the torch lighted most of the way. After many more harrowing experiences the final runner delivered the victory fire to the Clinton stadium at approximately 7:00 p.m. Saturday.

HOWARD WINS 'BATTLE OF THE BAPTISTS' 9-0

Carson-Newman 0

On Nov. 9 the Bulldogs again took to the road as they traveled to Jefferson City, Tennessee, for the annual "Battle of the Baptists" against Carson-Newman. And for the fifth time of the season Howard emerged victorious, winning 9-0. The Bulldogs were perhaps tougher on defense than at any other time of the season. The Bulldogs packed all their scoring into a strong second half after both Howard and Carson-Newman missed field goal attempts in the first. In the third period the 'Dogs put points on the board, though not as many as they would have liked. A pass was called back and the 'Dogs had to settle for a 25-yard Keeling field goal to make the score 3-0. Wyatt's 38-yard pass to Jeff Hopping later in the same period was the key play toward the only touchdown in the contest. Before the game ended, both teams again got close enough to try another field goal each, but both attempts failed. Quarterback Larry Wyatt played a particularly fine game.

HOWARD FALLS 17-16 TO LOUISIANA CATS

Howard 16

Louisiana College 17

The Bulldogs finally met an underdog team who did not want to be beaten when they played Louisiana College for the last game of the season. What really happened was this: The 'Dogs ran into one of the finest passers they had seen all season. Also, they were plagued by injuries plus ten other large reasons from Louisiana. The score was 17-16, but it could have been worse. The Wildcats gained 365 yards total offense while holding Howard to 242 yards. Sixteen complete passes accounted for 236 of the Wildcats yards. But then it could have been better. Howard got a final chance from the Wildcat 20 yard line when the Wildcats got off a 10 yard punt. Howard evidently just didn't have enough steam left. Reggie Allen, though, in his final collegiate effort bravely tried to return the punt, but the Wildcats had no intention of letting that game slip away as others had for them this season and nailed him as the gun sounded.

Bulldog Larry Wyatt (11) finds the going gets tough when surrounded by a trio of Carson-Newman Eagles.

BASKETBALL continued

Season's end of any sport is always a time of retrospection, of evaluation, and of criticism. Howard basketball '63-'64 will not go down in anybody's book as a successful season by any means. The team recorded 7 wins to 16 losses, one of the worst in years. Why? This being mainly a rebuilding year, the Bulldogs were plagued by lack of bench strength, for one thing. Another, fewer scholarships than most of the teams we played.

But let it never be said that our cagers didn't give it all they had, because they truly did. In fact, Coach Ledbetter was all praises at season's end for the efforts of the team.

A high point of the season that fans will remember was the Louisiana game in which Howard edged by 86-84. Another was the whopping 207 points scored in the Athens game in which the Bulldogs again emerged victorious. Perhaps the highlight of the season was the Alabama game, which Alabama won 75-67. It should make the Bulldogs feel extremely good to know they gave top-seeded Ala. such a battle. And 2500 Seibert fans were there to tell them so. All in all, we're mighty proud of the effort our Bulldogs put fourth, and we're looking forward to a fine '64-'65 season.

Dr. Francis M. Bush demonstrates how the organism should handle the ball during the Senior-Faculty basketball game.

THE 1964 EDITION OF HOWARD'S BASEBALL BULLDOGS

Coach Virgil Ledbetter's stickmen closed out their '64 season to the winning tune of 15-11 with such stalwarts as Bob McKenzie and Jack Hare seeing their last action. The Howard baseball batting title belongs this year to freshman James McCay, who had a .333 average. Top hurler Wayne Howard finished with a 7-3 record.

HOWARD NETMEN CAP UNDEFEATED SEASON WITH 23 STRAIGHT VICTORIES

Howard's fantastic tennis team completed a 23-game winning streak to end a perfect season this spring. This year's racquet squad was led by five seniors, among them Dave Beerman, who has been beaten only once in three years of collegiate competition. Bill Elder, another senior, also sported a perfect record this year. So, to Coach Sharman and his fine netmen, our hats go off for a job well done.

Girls fight unashamedly for the basketball.

Team representatives accept intramural sports trophies for volleyball, basketball, softball, and swimming.

Tully Jimmerson and Dianne Crews accept Intramural Championship trophies from Miss Willoughby.

Dianne Crews finishes first for BSO in relay.

The competition for women's intramurals is as keen as that for national championship. Included in the official program sponsored by the physical education department and directed by W. I. A. are the following sports: Volleyball, basketball, softball, and swimming.

As a sideline to intramurals various track meets and competitions involve the teams. Composing the intramural teams are the five sororities, two dorm teams, and Civiorum.

Sororities compete in H-Day festivities.

ACTIVITIES

Club meetings, choir rehearsals, officers' elections, banquets, initiation, competition—among us all of these things spell out activities and organizations.

Organizations are an integral part of the intellectual, social, spiritual, and professional aspects of Howard.

Within these groups are found the campus leaders and followers; all are important contributions to school spirit and campus activities.

THE PUBLICATIONS BOARD

The Publications Board is the governing body of all the student publications. It consists of the editors and business managers of the Crimson, Entre Nous, and Pensez, as well as faculty members and SGA representatives. SEATED: Carol Fishburne, Emily Stockard, Martha Myers, Dick Conville, Dr. William Baxter. STANDING: Dr. Arthur Walker, David Graves, Edwin Graves, and Mr. Wilbur Helmbold.

ENTRE NOUS-1964

As can be expected, the ENTRE NOUS publication entails hair-pulling, hours of drudgery, and those hectic weeks before deadline. 1964 was no exception as far as these were concerned.

We have tried to create a book that would preserve the very spirit of Howard—one that would bring back memories of the people, events, campus, and studies "among us" during 1964.

Under the sponsorship of the Student Government Association, $12,500 is appropriated for the yearbook; the sale of advertisements is the other primary source of income. The matter of finances is only one aspect in the publication of a book. It has actually been the efforts of the staff composed of volunteer students which has made this book possible.

CRIMSON

Editor-in-Chief: CAROL FISHBURNE, Assistant Editor: SYLVIA WHITLOW, Sports Editor: WAYNE ATCHESON.

After a week of pen-pushing, picture snapping, phone-calling, and typewriter-pecking, the CRIMSON finds itself scattered from one end of the Howard campus to the other each Friday.

"Among us" the newspaper is the most effective means of communication. Most students would be lost without it, for it bears news of everything from campus election results to professional opinions on national issues.

The CRIMSON operates successfully on a budget of approximately $10,000. Thirty-four issues appear each year.

THE STAFF: Elaine Rolen, Judy Scott, Betty Brooks, Peggy Blizzard. SECOND ROW: Louisa Woodard, Marianne Bohorfoush, Edwin Graves, Rex Forehand, Sandy Breed, Jane West, Meg Gross, George Frey.

BULL PUP

The BULL PUP is perhaps the handiest of all the student publications. This is the faculty and student directory on which every student depends for addresses and phone numbers. The BULL PUP, too, is financed by the Student Government Association and advertisements.

EDWIN GRAVES, Editor
MONETTA MOAK, Assistant Editor

PENSEZ

The latest student publication is accurately entitled PENSEZ, and this is its function—to make students exercise their reasoning faculties. Articles, essays, short stories, poetry, and art work are submitted by the students.

This year's edition carries the distinction of being Howard's first successful literary magazine.

HOWARD COLLEGE MARCHING BAND

The Marching Band is another of those welcome sights around Howard. Homecoming, parades, football games, and a big brass band is the formula for Fall. Without the band the charm and color disappears.

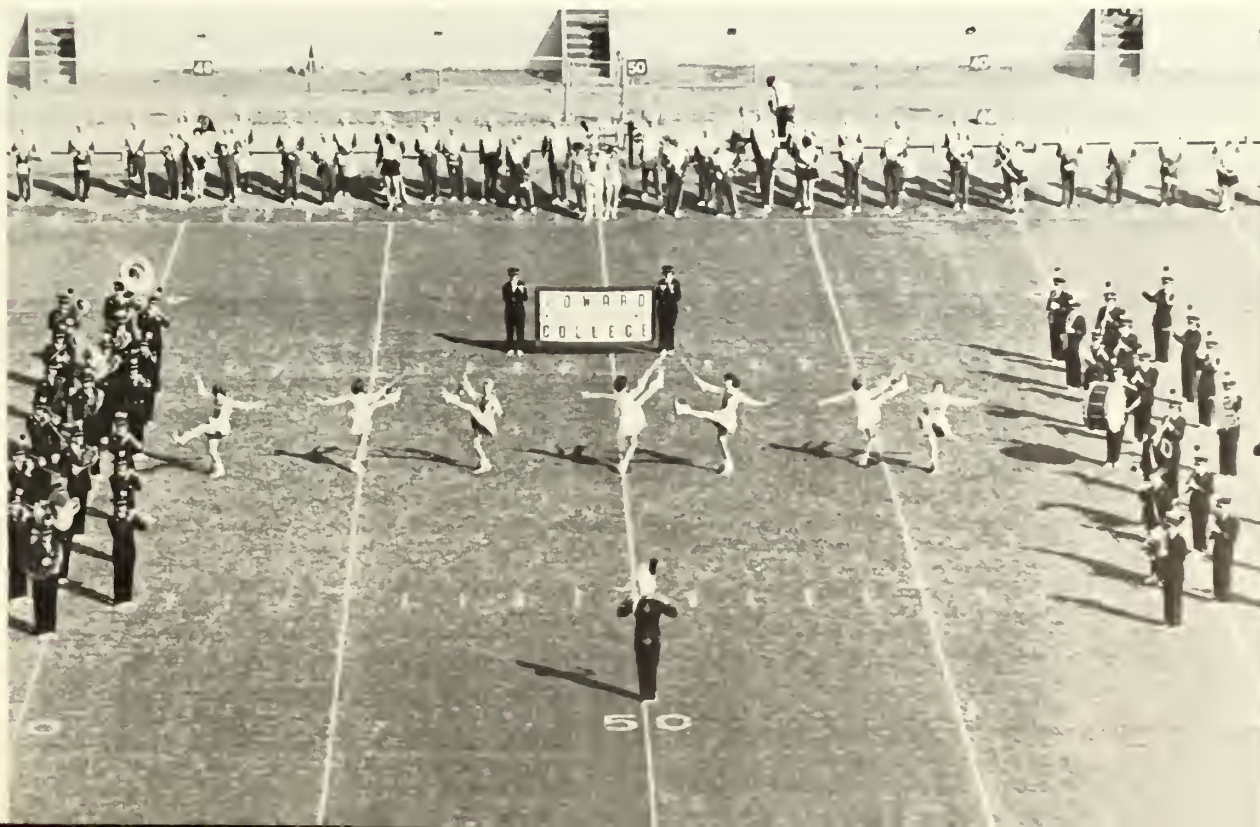

Palmer Rowe, drum major, Charlotte Brooks, head majorette, and Mr. Floyd McCoy, band director, collaborate to make a successful band show.

A typical "after the game" scene of the band.

Twirling batons complete the band ensemble. Majorettes: Glenda Noles, Charlotte Brooks, Monty White, Judy Carter, Brenda Culp, Ann Johnson, and Judy Ward.

HOWARD COLLEGE CONCERT BAND

The Howard Concert Band has made itself indispensable around the campus. At every convocation and special occasion the band is called upon to present its music.

Mr. Floyd McCoy and his talented crew appeared at the Birmingham Sacred Music Festival. They hold an annual outdoor concert on H-Day as well as a formal spring concert.

For these reasons the Concert Band is a familiar sight and sound among us. . .

MR. FLOYD McCOY
Band Director

The Concert Band made a strange sight on H-Day as members appeared barefooted in hillbilly costume.

ADVERTISEMENTS

Among us, Howard College is very important; but, incredible as it may seem, it is not a self-subsisting unit. The commercial world of dime stores, doctors, dairies, restaurants, shoe stores, apothecaries, banks, bowling alleys, jewelers, and manufacturers can not be forgotten.

These our advertisers provide the necessities and luxuries of life. Simultaneously through advertising, they aid in the production of this student publication.
